Subject: Gold King Mine Question

Hi Sam,

I hear you have some public meetings taking place for 5 Points PCE. Sounds like you anticipate getting questions regarding the Gold King Mine blow out. Given how information is constantly changing I would suggest that if you get any questions about it just direct people to EPA's website below for current information.

You could even print out the main page and have it available should you get questions but I otherwise would not try to respond to questions but direct them to the site.

Thanks, Libby
